My Pages are open for service!

Efling is happy to announce the launch of the newly introduced online service system “My Pages” (Mínar síður).

My Pages were presented to members of the Efling Delegate Council during the previous meeting. The implementation process progressed fast from that point and the new, excellent service system is now available to all Efling members.

Conference: Discrimination on the Icelandic labour market

Efling, SGS and ASÍ held a conference regarding discrimination on the Icelandic labour market. The conference took place online and consisted of four informative panels. Each panel lasted 1 hour. Videos from the conference are available on Efling's Facebook page. Click the links below to access your chosen video.

- The reality of foreign workers in Iceland
- Gig work and vulnerability
- Helping hands in Icelandic tourism
- Labour trafficking - reality in Iceland

Eldum rétt and Menn í vinnu case will go to appeals court

The case of 4 Efling members against Eldum rétt and Menn í vinnu was struck down in the District Court. However, Efling does not accept the highly questionable ruling and will challenge it in the Court of Appeal (Landsréttur).
